

Dear Students

AAA

We wish you a blessed Ramadan and a very Happy Eid Mubarak in advance. We at Air University acknowledge your hard work, dedication and keen interest in online classes conducted to save the Spring- 2020 Semester. In fact your apt devotion and attentiveness made the whole effort worthwhile and facilitated Air University to conserve valuable time. This time can now be used to fine-tune procedures and refine online teaching methodology in line with HEC policies. As you are aware online studies, adopted worldwide was the best option available in these extraordinary circumstances. The online effort would significantly boost your awareness as well as enhance your future career prospects. However, it also requires you to put in more effort at your studies.

The University now closes for a well deserved academic break from 22 May, 2020 to 21 June, 2020. As you enjoy your holidays, our devoted faculty would continue to work at improving instruction techniques and devising online examination mechanisms. We would also strongly advise you to revise the syllabus covered during classes. Accordingly, the FMs would also be available to help you in your revision and to answer queries.

A complete working schedule after Eid has been posted on au.edu.pk to give you a heads-up on future academic activity. We look forward to your feedback on AULMS and Student Portal. Please also fill in a survey form on the subject circulated on your mail.

Do take care and take all precautions for the pandemic.

Our Best wishes for you and your loved ones.
